

The June 2nd, 2003 deadline for public comment and consideration is unrealistically brief and should be extended. Also, ownership and "cross ownership" of multiple broadcast facilities and medias by a single person or corporation in no way serves to promote the diversity in news coverage and expression of political opinions that are so essential to maintaining our democracy, nor does it promote diversity in entertainment and artistic programming. I disapprove.